

DAN AIR is set to fly from Bacău to three new destinations - Madrid, Bologna, and Milan (Bergamo), starting from March 31

The weekly frequency of DAN AIR flights will also increase on all routes included in the summer schedule

DAN AIR, the 100% Romanian airline, announces its summer flight schedule from "George Enescu" International Airport in Bacău. From March 31 to October 26, DAN AIR extends the list of destinations for regular flights, adding cities such as Madrid, Bologna, and Milan (Bergamo). Thus, DAN AIR will operate flights to 11 top destinations in Europe during the summer season. The new summer program also brings increased weekly frequencies for all routes.

"When we first came to "George Enescu" International Airport in Bacău, we promised to stay here for the long term, and here we are keeping that promise. We have identified new destinations that the people of Bacău have been eagerly waiting for, and we have included them in our schedule to offer them the chance to travel quickly and comfortably and to reunite more often with their loved ones. We have also increased frequencies for existing routes so that every traveler can easily plan their visits or vacations. We want to show the passengers of Bacău and beyond that DAN AIR is a trustworthy travel partner. We look forward to seeing as many of them on board our aircraft!" declared Matt Ian DAVID, CEO of DAN AIR.

About DAN AIR

DAN AIR is a 100% Romanian airline founded in 2017 by Captain pilot Dan IUHAS, then operating under the name Just Us Air. It initially conducted ACMI (Aircraft. Crew. Maintenance. Insurance) flights for various internationally renowned airlines such as Cote D'Ivoire Jazeera Airways, Transavia, TUI, Air Moldova, Air Baltic, Air Serbia, and Wizz Air. The company later rebranded to DAN AIR and began operating regular flights under its own brand. DAN AIR flew to major destinations in Europe from airports in Bucharest and Braşov and now exclusively operates regular flights from "George Enescu" International Airport in Bacău.
