

DAN AIR officially began operating flights from Bacău to new destinations included in the winter program
The CEO of the company flew to London to meet with representatives of Luton Airport

DAN AIR, a 100% Romanian airline, officially started flying on December 11 from "George Enescu" International Airport in Bacău to new destinations included in the winter program. The first flights on December 11, according to the new schedule, departed from Bacău to Brussels and London (Luton). DAN AIR will operate flights from December 11 to March 30, 2024, to 8 top destinations in Europe (London, Brussels, Liverpool, Catania, Barcelona, Dublin, Rome, Turin). Six of them are exclusively operated by DAN AIR.

DAN AIR's CEO personally flew to London

The inaugural flights had some special moments. Representatives of DAN AIR were welcomed on the runway by members of the management of "George Enescu" International Airport in Bacău and the president of Bacău County Council. Then, CEO Matt Ian DAVID, along with other representatives of the airline, flew together with passengers to London, where they were welcomed by the team of London Luton Airport.

Service on Board: Passengers receive a free snack and drink during the flight as part of the benefits package designed for traveler comfort.

Unaccompanied Minor Assistance: DAN AIR offers the "Unaccompanied Minor Assistance" service, allowing minors to travel safely with a DAN AIR representative to the destination, based on a special power of attorney from parents or legal representatives and an additional fee.

Pets on board: Small pets, dogs, and cats weighing up to 8 kg, including the carrier, can be transported in the passenger cabin. Medium or large pets, weighing up to 32 kg, including the carrier, can be transported in the aircraft's hold. This service has an additional fee.

About DAN AIR:

DAN AIR is a 100% Romanian airline founded in 2017 by Captain Dan IUHAS, formerly known as Just Us Air. Initially operating only ACMI (Aircraft. Crew. Maintenance. Insurance) flights for various internationally renowned airlines, the company changed its name to DAN AIR and began operating regular flights under its own brand. DAN AIR flew to important destinations in Europe from airports in Bucharest and Brasov and now exclusively operates regular flights from "George Enescu" International Airport in Bacău.
